

Become a Supporter of Rudramandir

Rudramandir means “the place where Spirit takes up residence to destroy pain and suffering.”

From ancient times the cultures of the world have turned to the transformational effects of art, healing modalities, music, and spiritual practices in the search for health, happiness, and fulfillment. Upholding that tradition, Rudramandir is pleased to offer various programs that provide the opportunity to make contact with Spirit.

Your Gift Will Help...

Why Should I Give to Rudramandir?

In its attempt to serve the surrounding Bay Area community, Sacred Space Yoga Sanctuary has established Rudramandir: A Center for Spirituality and Healing. It is our hope that if you find your experience at Rudramandir contributes to your physical, mental, emotional, and spiritual well-being, you will help support us by making a donation.

Specifically, we wish to raise funds for:

- General Fund: The mortgage and operational expenses for the building.
- Scholarship Fund for Rudramandir Sponsored Programs: A fund for the financially challenged so that they may benefit from our programs and services regardless of their ability to pay.
- Development Fund: A Community Service Program with numerous free classes, such as yoga for kids, women's health, etc.
- Building Fund: Major building repairs such as roof replacement.

The programs at Rudramandir are made available through Sacred Space Yoga Sanctuary, a non-profit organization, with the help of a very limited staff and volunteers.

We need financial support from individuals, foundations, and corporations in order to continue to serve the community around us. Your donation will help us provide the services and programs that we are committed to offering.

Rudramandir is operated by Sacred Space Yoga Sanctuary, a non-profit 501(c)3 organization.

Its mission:

- To make ancient spiritual practices available to more people
- To offer complementary programs to support the total well-being of body, mind, & spirit

Sacred Space Yoga Sanctuary offers a variety of programs and opportunities for spiritual transformation through the ancient practice of Kundalini MahaYoga. The leader of Sacred Space is Swami Khecaranatha (“Nathaji”), an authentic adept of Tantric Shaivism in the Lineage of Bhagavan Nityananda and Swami Rudrananda. In this role, he directs the spiritual programs offered at Sacred Space. Nathaji is also the Director of Rudramandir.

Sacred Space Yoga Sanctuary was established in 2001 in West Berkeley. With the support of a growing community, the organization purchased its current building (Rudramandir) in January 2007 and began the task of remodeling the facility and creating a breadth of programs for the Bay Area community.
